

NEWSLETTER OF DR ALEKSANDRA M. PECINAR

On the occasion of the traditional commemorative wreath-laying ceremonies at the Serbian and Greek military cemeteries in Pirot, Dr. Aleksandra Pecinar, as the official representative of the National Research Foundation "Eleftherios K. Venizelos" from Greece gave a lecture on military and diplomatic relations between Serbia and Greece during the First World War. Lecture entitled "The Consequences of the Breakthrough of Salonica Front- City of Pirot as a Standing Point in Serbian-Greek Allied Relations" was organized at the Pirot Historical Archive, under the auspices of the Municipality of Pirot.

In the continuation of the commemorative festivities, after the invitation of the military attaché of the Republic of Greece in Serbia, Dr. Pecinar participated in the ceremony of laying wreaths at the cemetery of Greek and Serbian soldiers killed during the Great War

